

TODD GRAVER

MEMBER, QUALITY WORKFORCE COMMITTEE

REPRESENTING

BUSINESS

COMPANY/ASSOCIATION

FREEMPORT-McMORAN

POSITION

VP OPERATIONS, HUMAN RESOURCES

OTHER MEMBERSHIPS AND ORGANIZATIONS

- Grand Canyon Business Advisory Board
- Workforce Arizona Council

Todd Graver is Vice President-Operations Human Resources at Freeport-McMoRan. He's been with the company for more than 25 years, moving to Phoenix in 2010 after spending four years at the company's Indonesian operations in the remote region of Papua. Mr. Graver was born and raised in New Orleans, Louisiana. He has been married to his wife Merialee for 23 years. They have three children who currently attend Arizona State University, Grand Canyon University and Northwest Christian High School. Todd's mantra is "Life is good!"

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Mr. Graver started his career at Freeport-McMoRan in New Orleans providing human resources operational support to Oil and Gas, Agrico, Sulphur and Stratus properties. He relocated to PT Freeport Indonesia, a subsidiary of Freeport-McMoRan, in 2006 where he served as Manager-Corporate Planning and Integration with oversight of privatised companies and expat administration. He relocated to Phoenix from PTFI in 2010 as Director-Human Resource Business Partner and was named Vice President-Operations Human Resources in 2011. His current responsibilities include oversight of operational HR activities, site support, employee and labor relations, and training and development.

EDUCATION AND AWARDS

Mr. Graver holds a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing from Nicholls State University.